WINTER FASHIONS

THERE'S NEVER BEEN A BETTER TIME TO LOOK GOOD!

THE BEST DRESSED

Holiday Fashion Preview

Winter is here, Baby, and you can really feel it! You can really see it too, that holiday spirit in the air, the jam-packed shopping centers, the subtle hints of bold requests telling you 'what we want for Christmas.'

This is the time of the year when you re-think your priorities. When you make a special effort to make New Year Resolutions that are realistic; Give that special gift because it makes YOU feel good.

Get your physical as well as mental self together. To keep from falling under the weather, a different approach for hair and skin care must be taken. The 'hawk' can wreck havoc with skin and hair that was in tio-top shape last summer, if special precautions aren't made. Get a facial (men too!) or a new make-up look. Try a dynamite haircut from a salon (check out our makeovers on Pages 19 thru 22).

Dressing up is back! Or did it ever really go out of style? Put on your high heel sneakers, put that wig-bat on your head, grab your right hand man . . . and hit the scene. Strong looks are the Chinese influenced garments (that go from blue jean funky to ultra-sophisticated in satins and brocades). The ever popular evening dress is holding it's own this winter, too! Appliques, jackets, shawls, capes and new detailing separates this year's dresses from last years models.

DISCO-MANIA . . . the dance craze that's sweeping the country. Whether you are a hustling freak or a bumping fool, we have the clothes that will take you from disco to disco in style. See Page 8.

We will also show you highlights from the 'Whirl of Fashion,' THE OBSERVER's stupendous, fabulous, DY-NO-MITE Fashion Show, with Ja'net DuBois "Willona," of CBS's "Good Times." All the clothes in the show were from Weinstocks.

Sacramento's Ten Best Dressed Women, a long standing feature of THE OBSERER, will also be shown in this issue.

WINTER FASHIONS

OUR COVER:

Pam Kay, Robbin Senegal, and Rochelle Vaughn know how to look marvelous while dressing the Christmas Tree. All three ladies are in fashions from MACY's: Pam's in a cranberry toned halter with face framing feathers. Robbin has an apple colored slink of a dress with licorice trim. Rochelle is relaxing in a hooded, sleeveless, caftan-type dress in a rainbow of colors.

Merry Christmas to All, and a prosperous New Year!!!

Show Stopping Scenes From The 'Whirl Of Fashions'

Local models 'do it to DEATH,' at the 'Whirl of Fashion' last Sunday at the Sacramento Inn. Special guest commentators were Ja'net DuBois, of CBS' "Good Times," and State Senator Bill Greene. Master of Ceremonies was Truman Jacques of Los Angeles. Special guest was Mrs. Mervyn Dymally, California's First Lady.

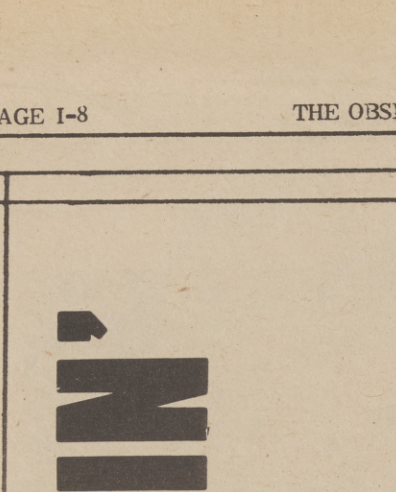
Super Sharp

Dazzling Performance

Dazzling, dashing, demure and dy-no-mite aptly describes the sophis-ticated setting for "doing it" on the town during this festive holiday sea-son.

GET MOVIN' WITH DISCO!

The Disco craze is sweeping the country! One of the "in" places to be is the Goldmine Shaft no. 1, in Old Sacramento during this holiday season. What do we wear while visiting the Disco?.....How about all of the latest from Penney's--Florin Center.



Chinese red is the color for getting noticed! Worn by Karen Hall, black and red flowered quilted jacket with red piping and frog closings; a bouquet of vivid colors. Underneath is a tank top and drawstring pans in red. Jeddison Geer is in a cotton corduroy leisure outfit in oatmeal with western style floral inserts on the jacket. Underneath a body hugging tank top with centered applique.

Sharon Myers is in the spotlight in a long gauzy creation of beige with peach flowers. This triple-tiered dress has a square neckline, lace inserts, butterfly sleeves and ties in the back.

Getting down with the coolest dance... the Bump --Karen Hall in a long dark green dress with double butterfly sleeves, plunging neckline, wraps and ties in the back. Jeddison Geer sports the latest; a dark green leisure suit. It has pockets and contrasting topstitching. He has added a dark green print shirt with a new quilted front. Sharon Meyers shows how to wear black satin for a fresh look this season. Start with black & white polk-a-dot long sleeve blouse, add a black satin blazer -- then slip on a pair of slim satin pants, and you're ready to go.

SACTO'S TEN BEST DRESSED WOMEN

Stylesetters for '75 find simplicity and the ' ability to capture a look for every mood' the best in fashion

It is indeed a pleasure for THE SACRAMENTO OBSERVER to present the "Ten Best Dressed Women of Sacramento for 1975." This year's group of selectees have been presented with more fan fare and notoreity than anytime in our history of this event.

The (1975) women have all earned notable reputations for their fashion leadership. Most of the 1975 winners frequent local dress shops, and some even sew their own clothes.

Each of the women thinks a wardrobe should express individual personality and taste. One of the ten "best dressed" summed up her definition of fashion this way: "Find your style -- then make it elegant, make it feminine, make it memorable and than make it yours."

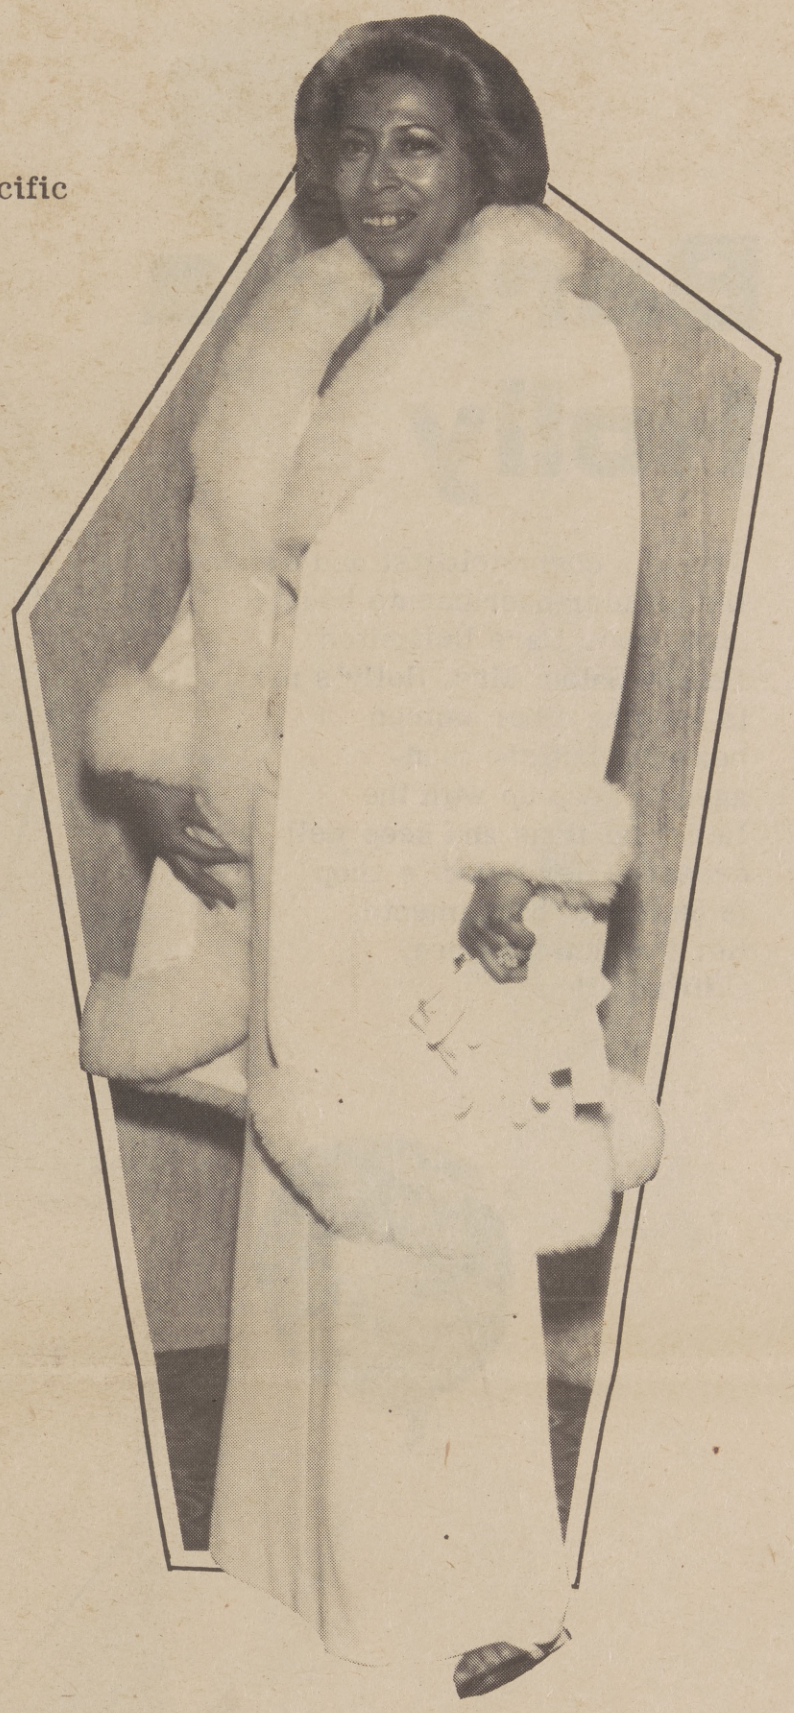
Again, we congratulate the 1975 selectees, who appear on the following pages.

Gloria Flentroy

Administrative Assistant to Senator Bill Greene, Mrs. Flentroy, is in the center of the political arena at the State Capitol. In spite of her busy and demanding schedule, she maintains a keen fashion awareness and enjoys shopping at deMilles and Green's in Sacramento for her garments. Mrs. Flentroy is the mother of one son, Reginal.

Erma Guest

Mrs. Guest is employed at Pacific Telephone in the Regional Staff Benefits Department. She has the responsibility for handling employee benefits. She supplements her wardrobe by making some of her garments in addition to shopping at her favorite stores, Liberty House and The Fashion Shop. The mother of two children, Glynis who attends American River College, and Gayle, who is a student at California State College Sacramento, Mrs. Guest is an active member of the Urban League Guild.

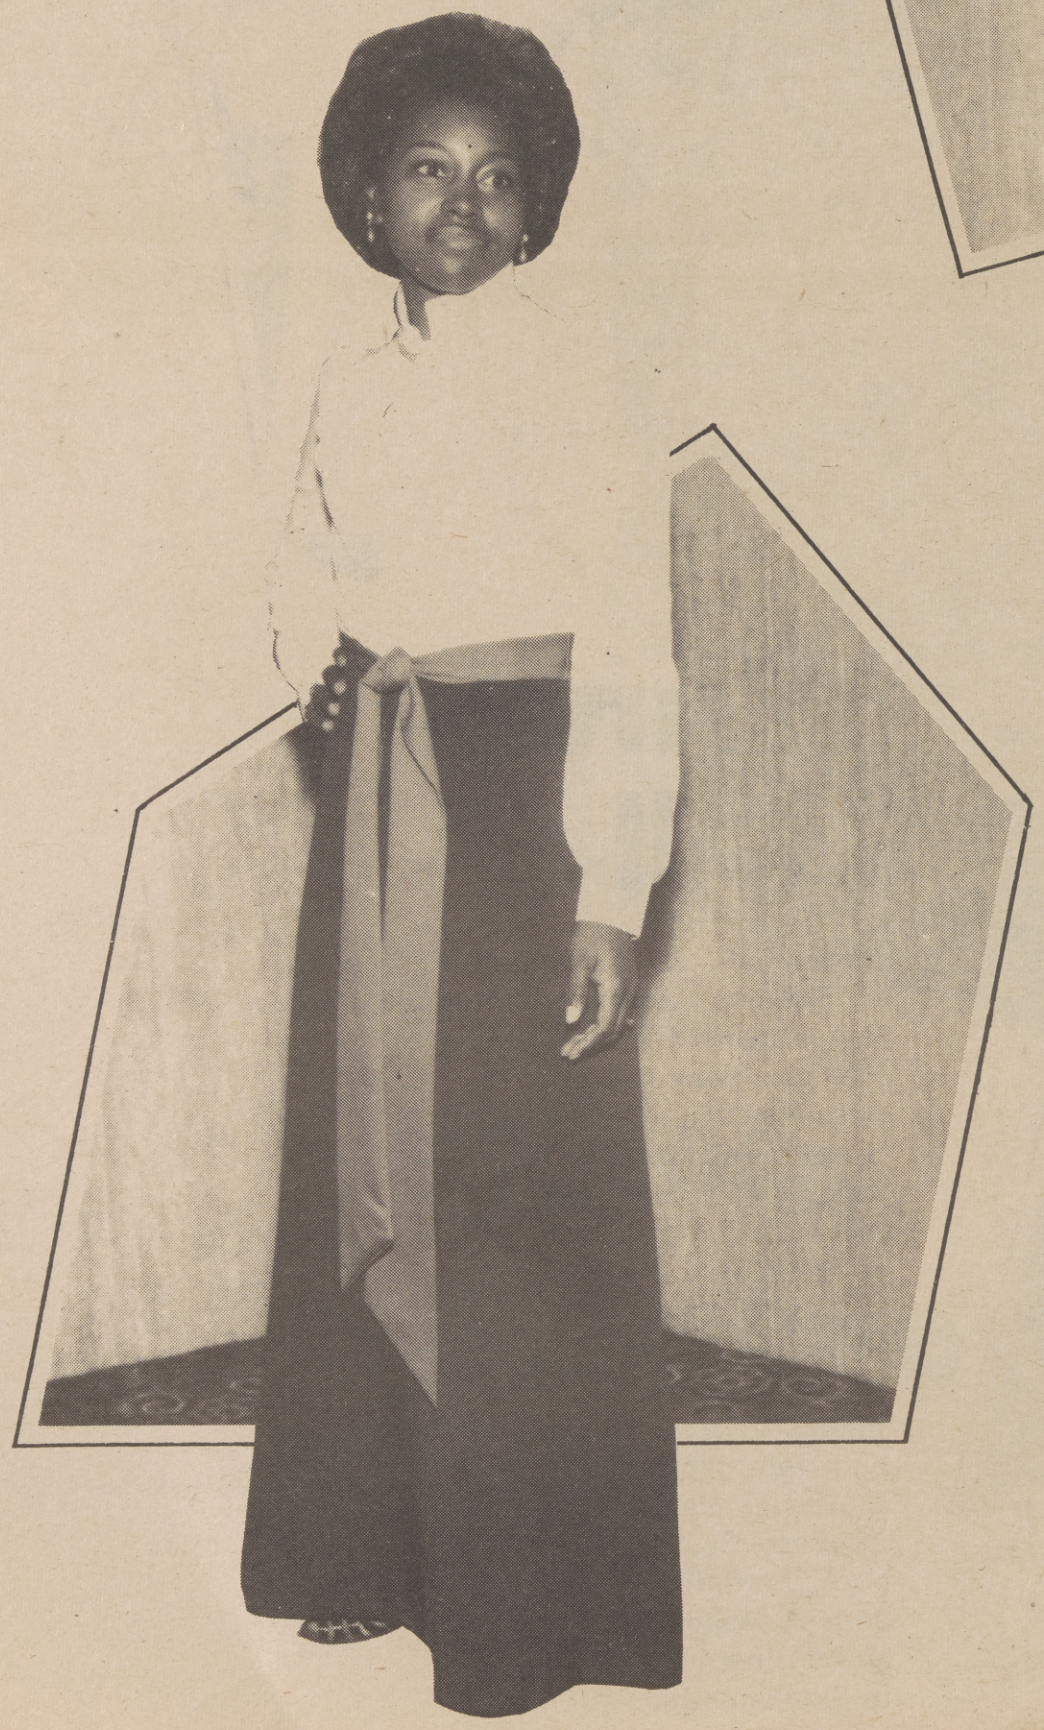


Wanda Hall

Mrs. Hall is Assistant Professor of Business Administration at Sacramento City College. She is a very popular professor in addition to being a very well dressed one. Mrs. Hall is president of the Women's Faculty Club at Sacramento City College and is an active participant in many other affairs on campus and off. She makes some of her garments and lists her favorite stores as Peyton's and M. Levy Co., in Shreveport, Louisiana, and Joseph Magnin's and Weinstock's in Sacramento.

Barbara Holly

She is a cosmetologist and owner of the popular Sacramento beauty shop, Hair Care Unlimited Beauty Salon. Mrs. Holly's job is keeping other women beautiful but she manages to keep up with the latest fashions and keep well dressed. Her favorite shop is Suzies in Sacramento. Her two children are Cliff and Hope.



Sandra Hoyt

Mrs. Hoyt is an active member of Moments of Blessing Church in Sacramento, where her husband is the assistant pastor. She participates in various organizations within the church and is a talented singer. She also has a knack for sewing and keeps beautifully dressed by making some of her clothes. Mrs. Hoyt's favorite stores for shopping are Weinstocks and Joseph Magnin's. She has one child, a son, Kenneth.

Donzella Machen

A popular Sacramentan, Mrs. Machen is employed at California State University in the California Teacher Education Department. She shops in Los Angeles and San Francisco for the latest in high fashion. Mrs. Machen is the mother of two children, and the wife of Harold P. Machen, a local attorney.

Archalene Martin

Mrs. Martin is a counselor at John F. Kennedy High School, and is interested in shopping in all the major stores in Sacramento for fashions. Charlotte Green's is one of her favorite stores for the latest in styles and she will occasionally travel to the Bay Area to shop. Dr. James D. Martin, is her husband and her two children are Karla and Jimmy.

Denise Richard

Miss Richard enjoys wearing pretty clothes and is surrounded by fashions daily where she is employed at Beadazzle at Sunrise Mall. She has a talent for sewing and makes some of her clothes and also shops for her fashions at Ransohoffs and Weinstocks.

Eleanor Tennerson

Mrs. Tennerson is a housewife. One of her interests is fashion and she likes to shop at Weinstock's and Macy's for her garments. She is the wife of Louis Tennerson and the mother of two sons. L. T., and Leon Tennerson. She maintains an active life in the community.

Pearl White

She is employed at Libby's Foods in Sacramento. Mrs. White has been exposed to fashion first-hand by having had a sister who was a seamstress and dress designer. She too, has a talent for sewing and makes some of her own clothes and likes to shop also in a number of stores in the Sacramento and San Francisco area. Mrs. White is an active member of Shiloh Baptist Church and the Women's Civic Improvement Center.

SACTO'S TEN BEST DRESSED WOMEN

Sacramento's 10 Best Dressed for 1975, are shown displaying trophies received at Sunday's fashion extravaganza. The women were presented before a capacity crowd of well-wishers.

Formal Elegance

24 ct. Gold. . . That's how you'll feel and look in this gold lame evening dress. The jacket is gold lame with navy etchings and a wing collar and a tie front. $42 at Wards. Shawn's tuxedo from Mr. B's.

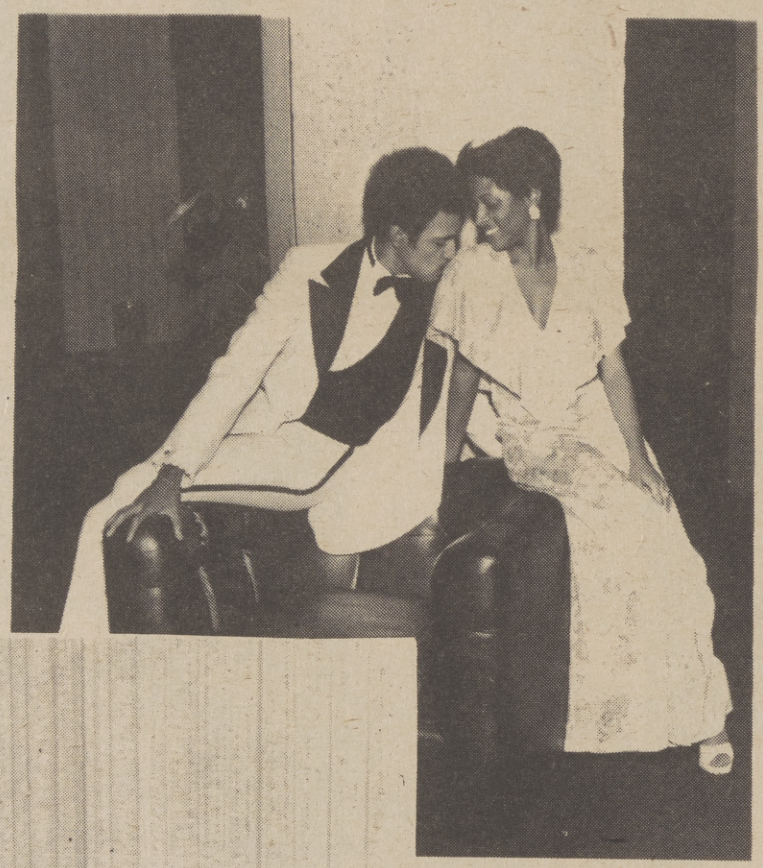
The height of elegance. Connie Claytor wears a multi-colored print of polyester jersey with a V-neckline. Directly under the bust is a mass of gathers that creates a swingy, swaying front. Only $28 at Wards. His formal wear from Mr. B's

You'll Be Remembered In These Fashions ...Long After The Holidays Have Passed

Robbin is a fashion explosion in this mint green creation with jeweled inset. The shoulders are deeply cut for maximum exposure. The gathered bodice gives added femininity. Available at Wards for only $28. Shawn Ortiz is our man of the hour in his tuxedo from Mr. B's Formal Wear.

The little jacket makes this a fashion hit for Robbin. Underneath, the dress has spaghetti straps and a tiny rosebud at the bodice. His attire from Mr. B's. Her's from Wards.

Sensuous Fashions



A kiss on the shoulder. . . this dress can inspire anything. A multi-colored print dress with a deeply cut neckline and a capelet type bodice, only $21 at Wards. His tux from Mr. B's.

Connie Claytor is toasting the holidays with Shawn Ortiz. She wears a magnificent melon-colored two piece gown. The dress has elastic at the bustline and a flowing print overdress. $54 at Montgomery Ward. Shawn's white on white tuxedo by Mr. B's Formal Wear.

Rhapsody in Black . . . two holiday attired beauties. Brenda, left, wears a long, black dress with front interest; a big, red, appliqued flower and a tiny jacket. $31. Karen has a long halter with shirring at the front and a lace-y black shawl with fringed edges. Both looks will light up his eyes and your holiday wardrobe. At Montgomery Ward. His tux, Mr. B's.

1. After the face is cleaned, Creme Moisturizer and Liquid Make-up are smoothed on for a flawless finish. Pressed Powder #7 reduces shine and gives face a velvety finish. For a smokey blue color, brown and blue eye shadows are mixed together, and a highlighter is put directly under the brow.

2. Black mascara that Donna applies herself, goes on next, followed by Eyebrow Pencil in black, to frame the eyes and add expression to the face. Lipstick #48 is sliced on for a dew kissed mouth.

3. Here's pretty Donna, made even prettier by Ultra-Sheen and Pam Kay. Available at Mervyn's Department Stores.

Ultra Sheen Facial Fashion

Ultra Sheen -- Facial Fashions introduces the Face Makers. . . a step by step way to perfect make-up every time. 'Tis as easy as painting by number, and much more fun, because the finished product is a beautiful new you! With Ultra-Sheen Facial Fashions there's everything you need to really make the most of your kind of beauty. Our make-up advisor is Pam Kay, Johnson Products Representative. Our fresh young model is Donna Brown (first Runner-up in a local Teen Pageant).

Completely Updated

(Above left), Parnell Walker, Styling Director of Soul Scissors, begins to roll Karen Spicer's hair after it has been washed and pressed using a relatively new method with a blow dryer.

(Center), Blondie Smith, Area Sales Representative has cleansed Karen's face with Anti-Oil Lotion, being very careful of the T-zone area which tends to be dry. After the Skin Freshener is applied, Melanin Moisturizer is put on to seal in previous moisture. Here, Blemish Touch is being put on to even out irregular coloring that is so common to the Black woman. Souffle foundation is smoothed on for a flawless finish, and now Karen's ready to have her face 'accessorized.' After a dusting with Loose Powder, liqui-Glo, a liquid blusher for that natural glow is put on the entire face.

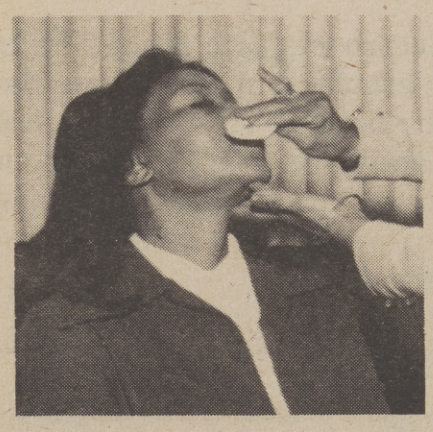
(Right), Three colors of eye shadow are applied; Olivene, Sangria, and Ultra-Violet. Models Choice lashes give that bright-eyed look. Radiance and Cheek-Glo, two types of Cheek color gives a natural, healthy look. A combination of two lipsticks, Sheeba and Lowdown Red are put on the lips.

Karen Spicer, all done with a new look, and the people who made it all possible; Parnell Walker of Soul Scissors, and Blondie Smith of Flori Roberts Cosmetics. Both services are available at Liberty House.

FASHION FAIR

'Day For Night - For Day, Too'

Fashion Fair's Cosmetics, Plum Krazy Face begins with face replanning with your own shade of Fashion Fair Cover Stick. Add you own favorite Fashion Fair foundation (here, Copper Glo Perfect Finish which provides the smoothest, most polished effect). Set makeup with corresponding shade of Transglo Face Powder. Blend Vivacious Violet Eye Shadow on eyelid with Lilac Lustre between eyelid and brow. For evening, accent with Pearlized Violet Eye Shadow from the Night Time Eyes Shadow kit. Use Black Tender Touch Eyelashes, Brown/Black Eyeliner Cake to outline upper and lower eyelids and finish with Bark Black Mascara. Blend Precious Plum Creme Rouge to highlight cheekbones. Prep mouth with Lip Balancer, add Pure Plum Lipstock; and for evening, finish off with Bashful Burgundy Lipstick for lip highlights. (For additional information and photos on Fashion Fair Cosmetics, see Page D-21).



So - So 'Before' Exotic After'

1. Here's Jeanne 'before.'

2. To get rid of surface grime, Deep Pore Cleanser is massaged into the skin and tissued off, followed by toning lotion to freshen skin and remove any traces of cleanser. Moisture lotion is used very sparingly.

Copper-Glo Perfect Finish creme foundation does just that, gives a perfect finish.

3. Precious Plum creme rouge is applied high on the cheekbones followed by Plum Rose powdered blush to 'set' the rouge.

4. Burgundy Brown and Luscious Lemon are the two new shades of eye shadow that Jeanne will wear Here, the Luscious Lemon has been placed on the lid before blending it over the eye.

5. The Medium Brown Eyebrow Pencil is used to add more color to her very fine eyebrows. Brown Sugar Lipstick is put on with the Fashion Fair Lipbrush, (using a lipbrush defines the shape of the lips and helps prevent lipstick from creeping into the tiny lines around the mouth). Crystal Russet lipgloss gives her a juicy-lipped look.

6. Here it is, a brand new make-up style for Jeanne Haley, and Ms. Regina Lynche, our Fashion Fair expert. Available at Macy's.

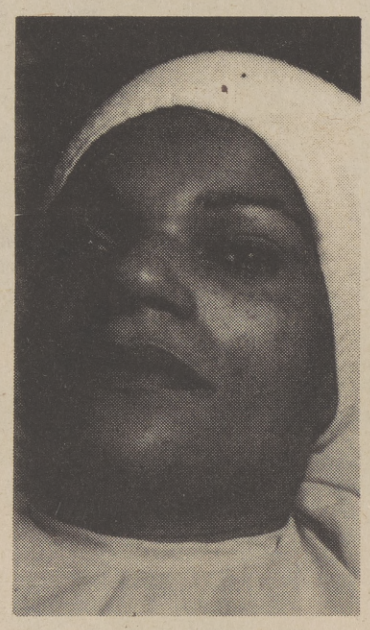
Treat Yourself To A Holiday Facial

Electro organic mini-face treatment is a boon for busy beauties. A fifteen minute treatment for a super-clean youthful-looking complexion.

Electric brushing facial vacuum and activator spray machines are used in combination with Adrien Arpel natural face-food masques. A complimentary make-up is included.

1



1 Luana Bernard, Supervisor and Skin Expert of Adrien Arpel Skin Care Clinics, does a super cleaning job on Phyliss Matlock of Sacramento. Here is Phyliss with all her make-up removed and ready for her facial.

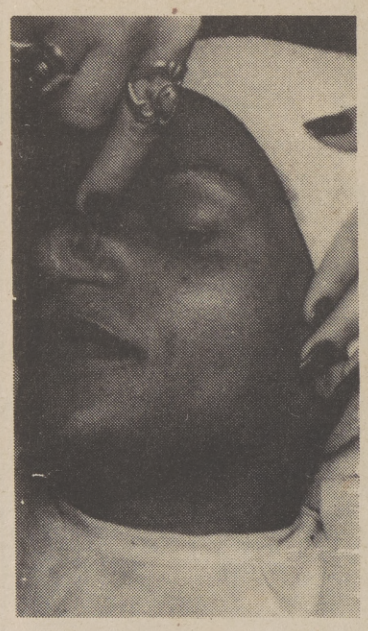
2

2 After the Peel-Off cream, Honey and Almond Scrub is applied and worked into the skin with an electric brush. This helps to flush out blackheads, whiteheads, and surface dirt that might clog pores.

3

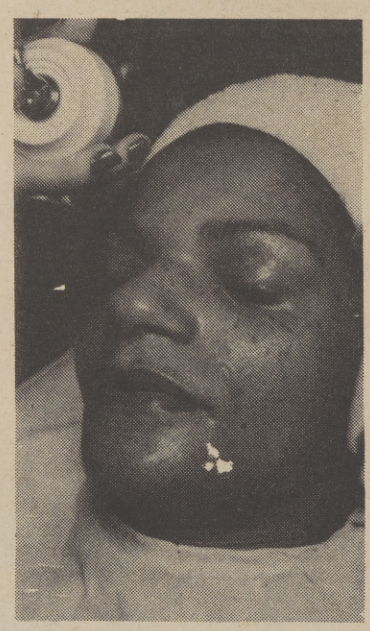
3 With the Honey and Almond Scrub still on the face, a hot towel is wrapped around the face to steam open pores.

4



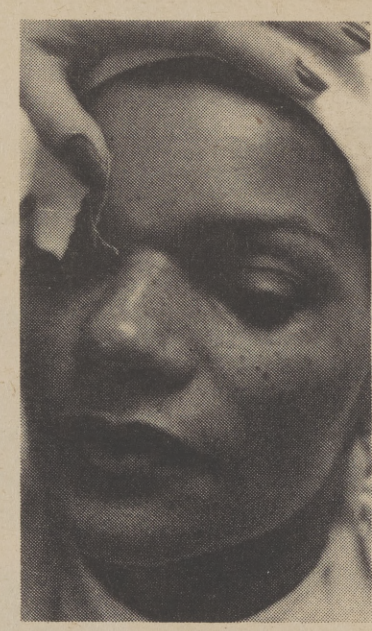
4 The Honey and Almond Scrub is removed and the Swiss Formula # 12, a dry wrinkle creme is applied. After this is massaged in, the facial vacuum is rotated over the face to actually pull out blackheads and whiteheads (you can really SEE them being sucked out).

5



5 Since her pores have been opened, it is very important to close them again. If this closing procedure is ignored, make - up, dirt pollution and other impurities will go right back into the pores and cause blemishes and other skin problems. To close pores, a spearmint Masque has been applied. After the masque has dried, it is removed, and the Oxygenator is used to spray on the Herbal Astringent. After another application of Swiss Formula # 12, a little Vita-Eye Oil, Neck and Throat Creme, and Vita - Velvet Moisturizer, Phyliss is ready for make-up.

6



6 Phyliss needed her brows shaped, so Luana waxed them to remove unwanted hairs with a dipilatory wax and a piece of muslin.

7

7 For her foundation she will wear Glycerine Liquid Powder, a liquid make-up, with the Crushed Pearl Finisher for luminescence. For eye color, Smoked Plum in the new line of moisturizing Soft Shadows. Plum Liner is stroked on the lid next (liners have been passe for a long while but are back now in a new way), and mascara in the same plum shade.

For cheek dramatics, Topaz Creme Blusher is touched on.

8

8 This is the completed look. Phyliss has an almost new skin. She said she even felt different. Luana Bernard of Adrien Arpel is our Skin Expert. These facials are available at Macy's, Weinstock's, and Liberty House.
